Newsletter from Saxony Trade & Invest Corp.

May 19, 2026

Dear Readers,

are you looking for the perfect location to grow in Europe? Are you looking for strong partners for production or research? Then you should definitely get to know business location SAXONY! and us, the Saxony Trade & Invest Corp.

In the coming weeks, you can meet us at conferences & trade fairs worldwide: for example, at the The Smarter E Europe / ees in Munich, the ILA Berlin Air Show, the BIO International Convention USA, or at the Robot Technology Japan trade fair. You can find us under the “green roof” of the SAXONY! (de)sign.

You'd rather visit Saxony directly? Then we invite you to take part in one of our so-called SAXONY! visit projects. Don't miss your chance — register now. Exciting insights into cutting-edge technologies and practical expertise in Saxony will be offered on June 15 -17 at the Silicon Saxony Days in Dresden and on June 17 at the Saxon Innovation Summit in Dresden.

Feel free to contact us directly with any specific questions. Let us know what we can do for your project in or with Saxony: www.business-saxony.com/contact. Be assured that we come back to your request within 24 hours.

Space to Grow – Saxony Facilitates Growth

Germany's reputation for growth has lost ground in the international business community. Nevertheless, Saxony challenges your perceptions of Germany: When Infineon celebrates the opening of its Smart Power Fab in Dresden in July, the project will be finished ahead schedule. You want to find your place in Saxony, too?: We have set up a database of 240 available plots for your investment project.
